DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

The tenant house belongs to the same parcel of land as CT-262. It may not be a pre-1925 structure, but it is typical of a type of structure common in this region during the early Twentieth Century. It is a one story frame-and-clapboard building put together with wire nails. It is characterized by its gable-end entrance and pre-modern 2/2 windows. This single unit has been subdivided into four rooms and is heated with a wood stove.
